

Who said: Life is not meant to be easy!

Jesus says: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

"I have come that you may have life, life in abundance"

Lord, I am weak, make me strong:

I am foolish, make me wise and good.

Thank you from this moment for a better, happier life.

Hey Lord, the pressure is on.....! I am stressed, really stressed.....!

Please release me of my burdens; from those who expect too much from me.

You helped Peter to walk on the troubled waters. HELP ME!

If you don't help me. I'll have to get your Blessed Mother to hold me above the rough waves!

"With faith you will do greater things than I have done", that's what you once said.

Thanks for enabling me to cope ever so much better.

You are the greatest!

Lord I am at my wits end. I want to give up now. I'm despairing?

Would you mind if I just fling myself at your feet, cry my heart out, and just leave it all to you to put things right? Jesus, Just One,

I praise you for causing things to go well and turn out just right. How good!

Jesus, you were really good healing 10 lepers.

That was really great, bringing Lazarus out of his grave.

You gave him life again with his family, friends.

Please do the same for people with terrible cancers, tumors, HIV-aids.

I believe you can. I believe you can.

You have done it so many times already.

Thanks a million for treatments and your Divine interventions.

Lord Jesus, you spoke your WORDS:

Be healed. See! Hear! Get up and walk!

And people got that power of yours and jumped for joy????

You touched sick people. They were amazed at your power to cure the lame, the blind...

and today the broken hearted, the drink-drunk drivers,

the drug-addicted....

the gambler-loser.

Let your dynamic power blow apart my lumps, fix up my entangled stomach.

Your power removes warts, rashes, irritations, and hair diseases, my wounds from accidents, wars or disasters. Your power is hot stuff. Works like ray treatment. By the way, thank you for healing my spine, my asthma. I don't have arthritis any more.

Maintain my healing-how?

By His Blood I am cleansed of my sin and sickness.

In His Name I am set free by my wonderful Jesus.

By His Grace, He has made me FEAR-less, BLAME-less, GUILT-less, SCAR-less.

By His Goodness, I am WORK-able, WALK-able, un-WORRY-able.

With Peace I can sleep good again, I can eat things I couldn't eat.

I like my old dislikes and breathe naturally. (I don't panic, get hassled).

I am steady, stable, not stupid.

Jesus you are my rock. I stand up on your truth and walk wisely, uprightly, securely...

Nothing can really harm me.

Praise you My Lord and Friend and Brother Jesus.

Love all with all your heart and soul, as God loves you. Forgive enemies fully and try to love them with at least a handshake.

Eternity takes a day or two but giving a couple of nods of the head - yes to the good or no to evil.

Take your time while you have it till that anger dies off. Start each day as if going in a plane, take off, go forward and upward. You'll get there at the end of the day. You don't have to be a fool all your life!

How many times a day do you breathe? How many times do you thank the Life-Giver? How many stars do you see in the sky and how many stars you don't see?

How many things do you know a little and how many mysteries you will never know? God is like that somewhat. Wouldn't you agree?
