

ROSARY OF ONE HUNDRED REQUIEM

Anna Maria Taigi was very devoted to the souls in Purgatory. In her pious exercises she used to intercede for the Blessed Souls by reciting a hundred requiem. She gave witness to having received many celestial favours from God in the most diverse circumstances and during the greatest spiritual and temporal needs.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I offer You, beloved Jesus, the merits of all the sufferings and sorrows You experienced for our redemption, to help the souls in Purgatory; I begin by contemplating the Blood You sweated on account of the desolation and anguish You experienced in the Garden of Olives.

I offer You, my beloved Jesus, for the souls in Purgatory, the admirable patience with which You endured so many insults from those cowardly soldiers, who dragged You from Annas to Caiaphas, from Pilate to Herod, who, in greater contempt dressed You in the robe of the insane and sent You back to the Roman governor through the mocking and jeering crowd.
